4.3	PASS PERCENTILE
	Actual scores will not be considered further since these percentile scores will depend on relative difficulty of the question paper, and the relative ability of candidates, and it is not advisable to use these in generating cut-offs for selection. These will be converted into percentile score using the formula: $\text{Percentile} = \frac{[B + (0.5 \times E)]}{N} \times 100$ where 0 B= number of scores below the candidate's score, E= number of scores equal to the candidate's score (1 if there is no tie, and >1 if there is a tie), and N= number of candidates appearing for exam. Overall rank of all the candidates shall be decided based on these percentile scores, with a higher percentile score translating into a better rank.
4.4	INTER-SE MERIT
	If two or more candidates obtain equal percentile scores, then inter-se merit for selection shall be determined on the following basis:
	(i)	A candidate who has made more attempts in passing 10+2 examination would rank junior to the candidate who has made lesser attempts.
	(ii)	If the attempts made in passing 10+2 examinations are also the same then the candidate who has obtained higher marks in the 10+2 examination shall rank senior to a candidate who has obtained lower marks.
	(iii)	If the attempts made in passing said examination and the marks obtained in the examination are also the same, then a candidate senior in age shall rank senior to a candidate who is junior in age.
NB:	The admission to the course is initially made on probation for a period of three months. At the end of 3 months, if the performance of the candidate is not found to be satisfactory, his/ her admission may be cancelled.

4.5	MERIT LIST & MINIMUM CUT-OFF PERCENTILE
	A combined merit list based on the percentile obtained by all the candidates appearing in the entrance test (irrespective of their category) and applying the above method for resolving ties shall be prepared. The candidates with minimum cut-off percentile in entrance test as mentioned below against each category, will qualify for admission: • Open (General)/Sponsored/Foreign National: 55th percentile • SC/ST/OBC & PwBD : 50th percentile • Candidates from reserved categories are also eligible for general category seats (open seats).
